

CONDITIONS OF ENTRY TO EVENTS

North Shore Events Centre aims to provide a friendly and relaxed atmosphere so that all patrons can enjoy the entertainment and services at the venue.

For the comfort and safety of everyone attending events at the North Shore Events Centre, all patrons are required to abide by the following conditions of entry:

All patrons are asked to treat the venue and other users of the facility with absolute respect at all times. No patrons shall use language or behave in a manner likely to cause embarrassment to other persons.

Everyone entering the North Shore Events Centre with a package or bag may be asked to consent to an inspection. Inspections may also be carried out during and after the event.

Patrons will be refused entry or may be removed from the North Shore Events Centre if they are intoxicated or under the influence of drugs, have prohibited items, throw a missile, are causing distress and disruption to others, behave in a disorderly manner, refuse to undergo a search, or cause damage to North Shore Events Centre property.

Rubbish bins are to be used for the disposal of waste at all times. There is to be no unsolicited selling of merchandise, advertising or promotional giveaways. Standing on seats, or sitting/standing on fences and barriers is not permitted.

Patrons should be aware that sporting equipment such as basketball may be thrown from the playing court and into the seated area during events. Patrons are advised this can occur at any time.

Children must be supervised by an accompanying adult at all times while in the venue.

North Shore Events Centre Management are onsite at every event. Please do not hesitate to speak to one of these personnel if at any stage you have a concern regarding your comfort or safety.
